

2023-2024 AIICE STUDENT ADVISORY BOARD ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

This document is designed to share the roles and responsibilities of the Alliance for Identity-Inclusive Computing Education (AiiCE) Student Advisory Board Members. In addition to the items listed below, you may wish to follow us on social media (IdentityInCS) and subscribe to our newsletters to stay updated on happenings within the Alliance.

BOARD MEMBER EXPECTATIONS

- Fully participate in the annual June Community meeting.
- Fully participate in the annual January Advisory Board meeting.
- Attend Student Advisory Fall Semester and Spring Semester Checkin Meetings
- Remain engaged via regular communication via the Teams channel
- Advocate for the Alliance and its activities at their home institutions and throughout their academic/professional communities while upholding the ideals of the AiiCE mission. This will be carried out by developing an activity or deliverable at your institution. More details are provided below.
- Attend and support AiiCE events and activities as your schedule allows.

BOARD MEMBER REMINDERS

- Confirm your enrollment as a student in good academic standing by completing the following form by September 1, 2023. <https://duke.is/v/fzp9>
- Share the name and contact information of your Department Chair and/or Dean with Minerva Matos-Garner by August 30, 2023.
- Develop a concise proposal that describes an activity or deliverable that you will develop at your home institution. The deliverable should describe how the AiiCE ideals fit into your planned activity or deliverable. This is an opportunity for you to share with a selected audience how you serve AiiCE as an Advisor. The activity or deliverable may be scheduled during either the Fall 2023 or Spring 2024 semester. Please share your planned activity via the provided Qualtrics form by September 15, 2023. <https://duke.is/g/9bkh>
